

EXPERIENCES

IN THE FAROE ISLANDS

MYKINES OVERNIGHT STAY

Blend in with the locals and the puffins and enjoy the tranquility of Mykines Island in the evening.

You arrive in Mykines late afternoon with the boat. Your local guesthouse hostess and guide will meet you by the boat and take you to the guesthouse.

Here you will enjoy dinner in an old house dated 1895, one of the oldest houses in the village of Mykines. There are only 50 houses and 15 all-year-around inhabitants on Mykines Island. In the summer, there are 30-40 people on the island after the last ferry has left.

You will experience the calmness and stillness of the island. Hear the birds singing, the river run through the village and the sheep calling for their lambs. Hear the roaring waves and stroll through the village in the quiet evening.

After dinner, we will bring coffee and sweets with us and go on an evening hiking tour to meet and greet the puffins and the gannets and see the sunset. Remember that we have light until 11pm in the evening in the summer in the Faroe Islands.

You will sleep in cosy double rooms on the first floor under the ceiling in the guesthouse. The standard is B&B.

In the next morning we will have breakfast and take a stroll through the village and down to the ocean or one more tour to see puffins and birds on the edge before you sail back to Sørvágur with the morning ferry.

FAROESE BOAT TOUR

Visit secluded fiords. Sailing along the seashore you see magnificent landscapes and hear stories. You see and learn about local marine life too.

These authentic boat tours are ideal for small groups and families who enjoy active travel. There are up to 5 guests on each tour. You reach magnificent fiords and villages outside the most traveled areas.

Sailing in a traditional Faroese boat is a unique experience. You come close to the sea, the landscapes along the seashore, the seabirds and the marinelife. Sailing along wondrous seashores you observe geologic expressions from a volcanic origin.

The Faroese boat is a descendant of the Viking longship that explored the coasts of the North Atlantic Ocean more than a thousand years ago.

The boat handles exceptionally well on the sea. It was developed primarily as a light rowing boat but is also suitable for mast and sail. In modern days the boats are oftentimes fitted with small outboard engines.

FISHING TOUR AND DINNER

This is an authentic full day experience. You get an opportunity to angle in one of the most beautiful areas of the Faroe Islands. After returning to the marina, you are invited to a local home where the fish that you have caught will be one of the ingredients in a wonderful meal!

You sail in a traditional Faroese boat - the utmost of Faroese handicraft.

Sailing out through the fiord you see dramatic landscapes. Several species of fish may take your bait including haddock and Atlantic cod.

For dinner, your hosts are traditional sheep farmers, and your menu will, apart from your fish, also include traditional Faroese specialities! During your visit, your hosts will communicate local traditions, culture and cuisine.

Menu:

Starter: A platter with various Faroese specialities, such as dried fish with whale blubber and potatoes, dried lamb and salted lamb.

Main course: Faroese fishcakes with potatoes, vegetables and melted butter.

Beverages: Your choice from local beer, soft drinks and water.

Desert: Home made cake with coffee or tea.

FAROESE HOME DINNER

Arguably the best way to really experience any culture is to integrate with the locals. And what better way to do this than over a delicious, traditional meal?

The Faroese phrase "heimablídni" translates directly as "home hospitality", and all across the islands you can enjoy authentic and intimate dining experiences in people's homes. In addition to being served traditional homemade Faroese food, you will also hear interesting stories that relate to that particular part of the country or village.

These underground restaurants, with rates sometimes as little as DKK 400 (approx. €50) per person, offer you the opportunity to sample new food, often dissimilar to the food usually served in restaurants, in personal environments that give you a proper taste of Faroese culture.

Sometimes a perfect stranger is the best dinner host.

PRIVATE HOME CONCERT

The music has always played an important role in the Faroe Islands.

A little nation with many amazing musicians and, even at the moment, international well known artists.

On our guided trips we always play faroese music on our tours, so our travellers get to know the local artists.

For those willing to go further, we can arrange a private concert at a home.

An unforgettable experience!

Concerts are booked upon request.
